

Always abide by the Snow Emergency Levels before making a decision to travel. Listed below are those levels as described by the Butler County Sheriff's Office:

Level 1

Roadways are hazardous with blowing and drifting snow. Roads can be very icy. Motorists are urged to drive with extreme caution.

Level 2

Roadways are hazardous with blowing and drifting snow. Roads can be very icy. Motorists are urged to avoid being out on the roads. Drive only if you feel it is absolutely necessary. People should contact their employer to see if they should report to work. If you are driving, use extreme caution.

Level 3

All roadways are closed except for emergency personnel. No one should be driving during this condition unless it is absolutely necessary, or a personal emergency exists. Anyone traveling on roads may be subject to arrest.
