- 3050 Anchor Drive – evening shift officers responded to Frisch’s for a felonious assault. A female allegedly took her partner’s vehicle without permission. The owner of the vehicle attempted to stop her by clinging to the hood of the vehicle as it drove away. The owner of the vehicle was then thrown from the hood of the car and sustained minor injuries. The suspect was later located in Fairfield and arrested for felonious assault and domestic violence.
- 3213 Princeton Road – Colerain Township PD requested assistance in locating a shooting suspect. Officers located the subject at Wendy’s and took him into custody without incident; however, he did have a loaded handgun in his waistband. The subject is under disability due to a prior adjudication for a violent felony and FTPD charged him with Having Weapons Under Disability (F3) and Carrying Concealed Weapons (F4) and booked him into the BC Jail.
