- Detectives are investigating a reported sexual assault involving a child. This case remains under investigation and was presented to the Butler County Child Assault Task Force.
- A male subject is scheduled to enter a plea on a bill of information to approximately 20 felonies for several business break-ins in Fairfield Township, Liberty Township, and other surrounding jurisdictions. The break-ins occurred over the past couple months.
- The detectives presented their case to the prosecutor's office where a small child found a loaded handgun in his backpack at a daycare center.
- Officers responded to the entrance of 2702 Tylersville Road (mobile home park) for a female in the grass who appeared to be overdosing. She was given Narcan and became responsive before being transported to the hospital for an evaluation.
- Officers responded to the 2000-block of Parrish for a male that overdosed. Officers administered Narcan and EMS was able to further tend to the subject and transport him to the hospital.

- Midnight shift officers responded to the 2100-block of Parkamo Avenue for a fight between neighbors which has been a long, ongoing neighbor dispute. Officers arrested two people and issued a warrant on a third person.
- Officers responded to the One Way Farm for various calls throughout the month including runaway reports, threats of suicide, and assault. The department is currently utilizing the SARA model to develop a plan of action to respond to the increasing problems.
- Evening shift initiated a traffic stop on Tuley Road near Bobmeyer Road. Officers detected a strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle and the investigation and search led to officers recovering a loaded .45 caliber handgun, ammunition, and marijuana. The subject was arrested for Improper Handling of a Firearm in a Motor Vehicle, other offenses, and booked into the BC Jail.
- Officers responded to Allison Avenue for an assault report. The subject reportedly fought his stepfather causing multiple injuries from punching and choking him. As officers responded to the scene, the subject drove past them on SR4 and shortly after crashed his motorcycle near Fernway. The subject was transported by squad to Fort Hamilton for possible broken legs. Officers completed a crash report and charged the subject for the assault.
- Officers responded to Reigart Road for a suspicious person. A neighbor called in advising that a subject was observed stumbling around on the property with a handgun tucked in his waist band. Officers found the rear door of the house open and called the subject out and identified him without incident.
- Officers responded to Haverford for a fight involving a male who was huffing air dusters and also had multiple weapons in the house. The subject barricaded himself in his bedroom where he had at least 6 guns. Officers were able to locate and arrest the subject later during that shift without incident.
- Officers responded to Wildbranch Road for a domestic dispute. The investigation resulted in the arrest of the boyfriend for striking his 8 ½ month pregnant girlfriend. The subject was booked in the BC Jail for the felony.
- Evening shift initiated a traffic stop on Tuley Road and the driver fled on foot from the vehicle. After a brief search, officers located the suspect hiding under a vehicle parked in a yard on Fairfax Avenue. The driver sustained an injury while jumping fences and was transported to Fort Hamilton Hospital for his injuries. Once released from treatment, he was booked in the BC Jail for Parole Violation warrants and HMC warrants.
- Midnight shift officers responded to the Indian Meadows area for two male juveniles breaking into vehicles. The caller followed the males until officers arrived. The males were taken into custody at Bob Evans and charged with theft.
- Midnight shift officers responded to the area of Harvard and Concord for 10-12 gunshots. While in the area, officers heard six more coming from a house in the 1400-block of Harvard Street. There were several males there and officers arrested one of them on warrants and the other admitted to shooting the gun. He was intoxicated and subsequently arrested for Using Weapons While Intoxicated and booked into the BC Jail. Officers seized the gun and placed it into evidence.

Respectfully,

Chief of Police
